

Water Conservation Advisory Council - Workgroup Conference Call

AGENDA

Water Conservation Advisory Council Workgroup Conference Call
Workgroup: Municipal
Subject: Conservation Program Peer Review Group

Date: Tuesday, November 24, 2015
Time: 10:00 – 11:00 AM
Location: Conference Call

Meeting Facilitator: Municipal Workgroup of the Water Conservation Advisory Council
Meeting Attendees: Members of Workgroup & Interested Parties

Background:

The purpose of this call will be to assess the level of interest in forming a "Conservation Program Peer Review Group" which could provide a mechanism to share lessons learned and results achieved during deployment of conservation initiatives. Many utilities are focused on reducing outdoor water consumption through a variety of programs. Other utilities are taking on the challenge of offering conservation programs for customers who are economically disadvantaged. Success at either type of program is not easy. A peer program review group can help Texas water providers achieve water conservation success through a system that encourages sharing what works and what did not among other water professionals. A peer review system could also formalize ways for academic assistance with program review such as through internships or other university partnerships.
